

About Clinton Donnelly

Clinton Donnelly, LLM, EA, is the founder and president of CryptoTaxAudit. Clinton holds an advanced law degree in international financial planning including taxation. He is also an Enrolled Agent, a federally authorized tax practitioner empowered by the U.S. Department of the Treasury to represent U.S. taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service. This designation certifies Clinton to represent U.S. taxpayers worldwide for issues that include audits, collections, and appeals.

[Extended Description]

Originally founded as Donnelly Tax Law in 2015, Clinton rebranded his company in 2018 as CryptoTaxAudit when his company began specializing in cryptocurrency tax returns. His company now provides IRS audit defense and tax return preparation services specifically for cryptocurrency traders and investors.

Clinton Donnelly created the company's Bulletproof Crypto Return Methodology™, a powerful set of filing and disclosure techniques, to protect his clients from IRS crypto audits. This methodology is now used for all its clients.

CryptoTaxAudit offers several products, including:

- Audit Defense, its premier membership service, which provides IRS crypto audit defense services to all levels of crypto traders and investors
- Crypto Tax Preparation, a direct-to-client, white glove service for large investors, professional traders, and crypto whales
- Private Consultation, for confidential crypto tax advice and planning, offered by Clinton directly or by one of his senior crypto tax analysts

Clinton Donnelly is known as the "crypto tax fixer" as he specializes in U.S. income tax preparation and problem-solving for crypto traders and investors. Whether his clients live in the United States or abroad, his distinct skill set addresses the unique anti-money laundering and tax reporting needs of these taxpayers.

Clinton is the author of four books focused on U.S. tax reporting, focused primarily on cryptocurrency tax reporting. His company currently serves clients residing in the United States and in 65 foreign countries.

Since 2015, Clinton has filed over 1,200 tax amnesty returns with a 100% success rate. He has helped over 1,150 medium-to-large crypto traders and investors in reporting cryptocurrencies properly on their taxes. Annually, his company processes as many as 1,000 complex crypto tax returns and supports the efforts of other accountants with its educational materials.

Clinton is engaged in dozens of ongoing IRS crypto tax audits, each of which often spans several years. Clinton wins virtually every audit, often leading to the IRS paying significant tax significant refunds to his clients, due to the aggressive defense of his clients and the amended tax returns that his company prepares for his clients underdoing IRS audits.
